CLARK APOLOGIZED

So Men Who Objected to His Bad Tongue Forgave Him.

As the result of being refused trust for the price of two pigs some time ago, Frank Clark of Clinton called Er-nest Lincoln and a man by the name of Whitehouse of North Windham, vile of Whitehouse of North Windham, vile names and caused a great deal of excitement, Friday afternoon. The two men claimed that their pride was hurt to a great extent and told Officer Palhus of the circumstances. The officer set out and located his man who at first denied the charge but later came out with an apology. This seemed to satisfy the men as they would not press any charges against Clark not press any charges against Clark who was escorted to his team and
